A man representing himself as Louis Lanwolf, of Havre-de-Grace, purchased on Tuesday last from Messrs. Selsor & Brother, No. 30 North Wharves, goods to the amount of $450.00. In payment he gave a check for $75, signed by August Schaffer, on the Second National Bank, and received the difference between the amount of the check and the price of the goods, $20.50, in change. He then desired the goods to be sent to the boat, which was done, but the boat having left he was returned to the firm. The check was yesterday morning presented at the bank, when it was found that no such person as August Schaffer kept an account there. A complaint was then lodged at the Central Station. Lanwolf is described as being about forty years of age, six feet in height and stoutly built, has dark hair, black mustache, and florid complexion, weighs from 175 to 200 pounds, and was dressed in a black suit and wore a black silk hat.

New Jersey. Last evening, at 8 o'clock, Coroner Robert S. Bender resumed the inquest in the supposed Hill homicide case. The death of Mrs. Hill has been the chief topic of conversation since Sunday among all classes, and the relative circumstances have been pretty well digested. The testimony adduced last evening was simply corroborative of the evidence of Monday night, and harmonizing with the statements made that the prisoner was in the habit of cruelly beating his wife, the deceased, knocking her down with his fist, and otherwise brutally mistreating her. The jury rendered a verdict that Mrs. Hill came to her death from a blow or blows inflicted by her husband, Jacob Hill, on Saturday afternoon, October 29, 1870.

BELOW. Bark J. E. Chase, from Bristol, Eng. Correspondence of The Evening Telegraph. EASTON & McMAHON'S BULLDOZING. New York agents with they had previously abandoned. From others they had been deluged after hard fighting, and the Parisians held these positions until the 24th of October. The principal cannon foundry of the city, which is capable of turning out ten guns per day, had completed an iron-clad locomotive covered with armor-plate, and the same engine was busily employed in the manufacture of chasestops and light artillery. The National Guard had received thirty-six new field pieces. The Elector says the Prussian siege guns are before the city, and Paris may be bombarded at any moment.

Rumors of the capitulation of Bazaine were circulated in Paris on the 21st, and created intense excitement. The Parisian press, however, charged the government with knowing the fact and withholding it from the public. The citizens were incensed at this accusation, destroyed all the copies of the journals, and they could find no one to arrest the editor. The Journal Officiel published an indignant denial, the government not deeming it possible that Bazaine could betray his trust. Florens and Blangne failed to secure re-election as officers of battalions of the National Guard which they had commanded for more than a month. The Parisians are now in the enjoyment of the Parisians to maintain order.

General Trochu had received 30,000 francs voluntarily subscribed for the equipment of the battery. Subscriptions to the national loan were numerous. Seven hundred and fifty millions had been paid in of the portion due October 21. There was sufficient salt in the catacombs to make powder for six months. At the Comedie Francaise matinee were given to raise money for the relief of the prisoners. Concerts were also being held for the same purpose, which the public patronize liberally. All advices from Paris conclude with the statement that the ultimate determination prevailed, and that the defence would certainly be obstinate and prolonged.

The Prussian headquarters are at Oflanges. In the encounters with the enemy near Besancon he captured over 1000 prisoners. Tours, Nov. 2, evening.—Addresses to the government, and energetic prosecution of the war, continue to pour in from all parts of the country. At Versailles, Delpech, the mayor, gave in his resignation, in order that he might be free to enlist in the ranks, and he declares that women may well call towards now all able-bodied men who do not carry arms. Alphonse Ganet has been appointed administrator of the government at Versailles, in place of Equivoque, resigned.

The Minister acknowledges the receipt by Minister Gambetta of a sum of money from the French residents of San Francisco. The Minister is filled with the details of the enrolment of volunteers from the National Guard for active service. A platform was built on Place de Fanehon, on which was placed the motto "Citizens, the country is in danger!" Under this were inscribed the dates 1792 and 1870. Drums beat the charge, and as the crowd filled the square the roar of cannonading beyond the walls could be heard.

The Mayor delivered a patriotic address, at the close of which he was surrounded by a crowd of men, and they sang the Marseillaise. The sixteenth battalion of National Guard volunteered en masse. School boys over sixteen years of age are drilled daily. It is claimed that together with the system of defence by batteries the country is in danger! Under this were inscribed the dates 1792 and 1870. Drums beat the charge, and as the crowd filled the square the roar of cannonading beyond the walls could be heard.

A Herald special from Paris the 23d says, Chevalier de Kersaint, in a letter, assumes the responsibility of furnishing to M. Seventy-five thousand prisoners are expected to pass through Saarbrück in the next few days. The route to Treves. Twenty-five thousand were then marched over the chaussee to Ars Lagueny, where they encamped around a Prussian battery, equal numbers daily, and march on foot to the frontier.

SAARBRUCK, Nov. 2, evening.—(Special to the New York Herald.)—The delay which has occurred in the occupation of Metz has given rise to disquieting rumors.
